

The Hocking Sentinel.

LOGAN, OHIO.

LEWIS GREEN, Publisher.

1904 FEBRUARY, 1904

Su	Mo	Tu	We	Th	Fr	Sa
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29	30

PANORAMA OF THE WORLD

ABOUT THAT WHICH HAS BEEN AND IS TO BE.

All Dates and Conditions of Things are Shown. Nothing Overlooked to make it Complete.

Negro Burned at the Stake.

Little Rock special: Glencoe Bays, a negro hunted down by a mob, was burned at the stake near Crossett. He was charged with the murder of J. D. Stephens of Ashley County. Stephens, who was a wealthy planter, had a few words with Bays, the negro later secured a shotgun and killed Stephens at close range. The negro then beat the body with the butt of the gun and made his escape. Bloodhounds were brought on a special train from the north and were readily taken the scent and traced the murderer to his father's house, where the negro was hiding in a well. A mob several hundred strong gathered around and dragged forth the murderer, who made a full confession. With hands and feet tied he was bound to a stake in his father's yard. He was then surrounded him, the torch applied and the man slowly burned to death.

Slavery in the Jolo Islands.

In answer to a communication from W. O. Dodd inquiring into the reported existence of slavery in the Jolo islands and enclosing newspaper clippings alleging that Americans were the slave dealers. Secretary Taft has written the following letter:

"My Dear Sir:—The statement with respect to slavery in the Philippines is an outrageous lie. There are no Americans engaged in the slave trade at all. There has been in the past some kidnapping by the Moros of the hill tribes, which has been suppressed and there is little of it now. General Wood with the approval of the Philippine commission, is using every endeavor to suppress slavery throughout the Moro provinces to which it is almost wholly confined."

The Arctic Expedition.

United States Minister John Barrett reports to the State department from Buenos Ayres, Jan. 12, the arrival at that port of the Scottish Antarctic expedition of the Scotia and gives a brief statement of the results of the expedition. The Scotia covered four thousand miles of previously unexplored sea and found a new deep sea of 2,500 fathoms about five hundred miles southeast of South Orkney islands, abounding with fish and crustaceans. The Scotia was expected to return to Scotland by way of Cape of Good Hope some time in June.

Will Test Timber Law.

Merrill, a millionaire American lumberman, who owns 50,000 acres of timber land in British Columbia, and James Denham, a millionaire coal mine owner of Nanaimo, B. C., who has rights of timber lands granted from the government of the province, will join issues in testing the constitutionality of the new timber law taxing all timber exported to the States from $1 to $5 a thousand. These lands were secured from the government before 1888, or before any royalty or tax was put on timber in the province.

Terrible Slaughter.

A special from Ogden, Utah, says: Two cars of dynamite attached to a work train on the Ogden Lucin cut off of the Southern Pacific railroad, exploded with terrible force at Jackson, killing eight men and wounding many. The explosion was caused by a water train running into the two cars loaded with powder. Five locomotives were reduced to scrap iron and the big steam shovel at Jackson station was completely demolished.

Mine Strike Spreads.

Houghton (Mich.) special: Surface men of the Baltic, the Champion and the Tri-Mountain mines of the Copper Range Consolidated company, have joined the striking miners. This brings work of every description at the company's mines to a standstill, involving over 2,500 men.

Oldest College Burned.

Hanover (N. H.) special: Dartmouth hall, built in 1755, the oldest of the Dartmouth buildings and the oldest college hall in America, was destroyed by fire. Many of the students had narrow escapes and nearly all who roomed in the upper stories of the building lost everything.

Seamar Fanatics Slay Soldiers.

Manila special: Lieutenant McNamee and six privates of the constabulary were killed by a mob of 500 fanatics while patrolling the coast near Cavite. The private Salomon of the Fourth constabulary, stationed at Jolo, has also been killed by a mob.

Empress Dowager of China in Dead.

A special dispatch from Canton says it is reported in official circles there that the dowager empress of China is dead.

Fatal Collision on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

A westbound freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad collided with a locomotive at Granville, Pa. Christian Crimel of Altoona, engine inspector on the middle division, was killed. The special train bearing the body of the late Senator Hanna and the funeral party en route to Cleveland was delayed an hour by the wreck.

Heavy Loss by Fire.

The Portland Woolen Mills at Seaside, Ore., burned. Loss $150,000, insurance $100,000.

Mormons Buy Wyoming Lands.

A deal has been closed whereby the Wyoming State land board sells 16,000 acres of land in the Big Horn country to Apostle Woodruff and a syndicate of Mormons. The Mormons propose to start big irrigation projects and settle the land with at least 20,000 Mormons.

Pioneer Railway Engineer Killed.

William Miller, well known all over the west as "Dad" Miller, and probably the oldest engineer in service in the United States, was crushed to death under his engine in Louisville, Colo., while making some repairs. He was 71 years old.

Despondent Actor Ends Life.

In a fit of despondency because he could not secure an engagement with the Florence Roberts theatrical company, now playing in Spokane, George A. Yelding, an actor, stood before the door of the actress' room at the Hotel Spokane and blew out his brains with a revolver.

Water Fills the Mills.

Backwater from the ice gorges near New Zealand caused the greatest flood ever experienced at York Haven, Pa. The water extinguished the fire in the York Haven paper mills and work has been suspended there.

STORM SAVES FLEET.

JAP DESTROYER FLOTILLA DIVIDED BY A BLIZZARD.

Russia's Port Arthur Squadron Thus Escapes—Russian Re-Enforcements Moving Rapidly to the Yalu River—Alexieff Appeals to His Troops.

A heavy storm spared the Russian fleet from a desperate torpedo attack at Port Arthur on the morning of Sunday, Feb. 14. During the preceding night the vessels of the Japanese fleet of torpedo craft were parted by the force of the blinding snowstorm so that only two of the largest destroyers succeeded in forcing their way through the fierce gale to Port Arthur. When they arrived there they attacked separately and the officers of one of them are confident that they succeeded in torpedoing a Russian warship.

The destroyer Asagiri, in charge of Lieutenant Commander Ishikawa, arrived off Port Arthur about 8 o'clock in the morning and was met with a sharp fire from the fortress and Russian ships acting as scouts. The Asagiri discharged several torpedoes at a big warship, but the result is unknown.

Japan Embarks Three Divisions.

An official dispatch received from Tokio announces that one of the most important movements of Japanese troops yet made occurred Wednesday. One of the main branches of the army, consisting of three divisions and including a vision of guards, went on board transports. Previous landings of Japanese forces in Korea and elsewhere are said to have been small compared with this simultaneous sailing of three divisions, aggregating approximately an army of 30,000 men.

The Japanese authorities, it is stated, had taken every precaution to prevent information from leaking out concerning the embarkation and the destination of this army. It is believed that the destination of this force is a point near the mouth of the Yalu river, or a spot on the Liautung peninsula, flanking Port Arthur.

Appeals to His Troops.

Viceroy Alexieff Says the Almighty Is with the Russians.

The text of an order issued to the Russian troops by Viceroy Alexieff follows:

"A heroic army and fleet have been entrusted to me by his majesty, the Emperor. When the eyes of the world are upon us, we must not fail. We must not forget our sacred duty to protect the Emperor and the fatherland."

The Russian general staff announces that the war office is willing to accept volunteers for service in the far East. They must be under 40 years of age and have had military training. The volunteers will be enrolled in the reserve battalions under Viceroy Alexieff.

Czar Invades Korea.

Russian Troops Cross the Yalu River and Hold Wijn.

The report that 3,000 Russian troops had arrived at Chin-tien-cheng, opposite Wijn, on the Yalu river, is confirmed, as is the report that the Russians have occupied Wijn itself. They have 2,000 troops at Wijn.

The Korean minister at St. Petersburg announces that although 35,000 Korean troops are stationed about Seoul, his government preferred not to take up arms against Japan, because Korea is neutral and felt Russia would soon drive the Japanese out.

Emperor William has notified the Czar and the Mikado that the German hospitals at Kiochou and Yokohama are at the disposal of the care of men wounded during the war.

The Russian general staff announces that the war office is willing to accept volunteers for service in the far East. They must be under 40 years of age and have had military training. The volunteers will be enrolled in the reserve battalions under Viceroy Alexieff.

Somewhere under the snowdrifts a fine crop of winter wheat must be tucked away.

Perhaps Mr. Maybrick is in hiding for the purpose of warding off marriage proposals.

When a few million bales of cotton fall on the financial house something is likely to break.

Having ordered so much canned beef, Japan may feel that it must fight in order to get its money back.

If he is going to act this way the former President of the United States will vote to have him made into sausage.

At Bismarck, N. D., the temperature dropped fifty degrees in one night. Bismarck must be the Chicago of the North-west.

As the country was watching them the Congressmen came to the conclusion that it would not be right to take the extra mileage.

Do not lay all the blame for the trouble in the cotton market on the boll weevil. The speculation weevil has had something to do with it.

King Edward in his speech from the throne said he was worried about the security of cotton. Bill, the Queen gets enough of it to darn his socks.

St. Louis has mortgaged the gate receipts of its exposition to Uncle Sam as security for a big loan. Uncle just can't keep out of the show.

Perhaps the attorneys for the Chicago boy bandits were so particular about selecting a jury because they remembered that their clients pleaded not guilty.

That London liver who left $50,000 in bank notes in an unlocked portmanteau in a hotel room while he went to get shaved seems to have needed the lesson he got.

As Los Angeles a husband has seduced his wife for support. Evidently that man thinks the gender has a right to the same kind of sauce that the goose gets.

Nordica's ex-husband does not have to pay alimony. Probably it will be all he can do to look out for his own neck.

CONGRESS

THE SUSPECT CONCERNING THE CONDITION OF SENATOR HANNA RESULTED IN THE PROCEEDINGS IN THE SENATE MONDAY BEING DEPOSED.

There were no speeches this morning more attention was given the frequent bulletins than to matters of legislation. Immediately after the conclusion of the session the Senate went into executive session and agreed to vote on the ratification of the Panama canal treaty on Feb. 23. The doors were reopened at 12:32 p. m. The bill to pay $200,000 to ex-Queen Liliokalani was amended to reduce the appropriation to $150,000, but when called up for passage was lost on a vote of 26 to 26. Mr. Proctor, from the committee on agriculture, reported the agricultural appropriation bill. The conference report on the recent deficiency appropriation bill was agreed to. The House bill authorizing the director of the census to cooperate with the State of Michigan in taking the census of manufacturers of that State was passed. The House was furnished with a sensation during its forty-minute session when Mr. Shafer of the First District of Colorado voluntarily relinquished his seat in the House. He acknowledged that his election had been tainted with fraud, but declared that he was in no measure responsible for it, nor was he aware that it had been perpetrated until an investigation of the ballots had been made. His seat was the first one on record where a member has given up his seat for such a reason, and Mr. Shafer was cheered. A resolution was passed seating Mr. Bonyne, the contestant.

Chaplain Edward Everett Hale, in the opening prayer in the Senate Tuesday, referred to the death of Senator Hanna.

Mr. Foraker formally announced the death of his colleague, and offered resolutions providing for the appointment of a committee of twenty-five Senators to superintend arrangements for the state funeral in the Senate chamber; for invitations to the President, the cabinet members, the justices of the Supreme Court, the diplomatic corps, the Secretary of State, the admiral of the navy and the general of the army, for invitations to the members of the House, with a request that a House committee be appointed to act with the Senate committee.

The resolutions were adopted and the committee was named by the chair. As a further mark of respect the Senate, on motion of Mr. Foraker, adjourned. Rev. Dr. Conden, chaplain of the House, referred in his opening prayer to the death of Senator Hanna. Mr. Bonyne of Colorado was sworn in place of Mr. Shafer. The conference report on the agricultural deficiency bill was passed without debate. The fortification appropriation bill, carrying an appropriation of $7,181,192, was reported. A Senate clerk announced the action of the Senate on Senator Hanna's death, and Mr. Foraker presented resolutions accepting the invitation of the Senate. The House committee asked by the Senate was named by the chair.

The remains of Senator Marcus A. Hanna were conveyed to the Senate chamber at 11:15 a. m. Wednesday. Senator Frye, as president pro tempore, stood in front of his chair as the body was borne to its resting place. The people who crowded the galleries arose, and as the pall-bearers retired the Senate was called to order. Immediately afterward the House of Representatives, with Speaker Cannon at its head, filed and took seats assigned to them. Speaker Cannon took a place at the left of Senator Frye. Ambassadors and ministers of foreign countries next took their places, followed by representatives of the army and navy and of the Supreme Court. President Roosevelt and members of the cabinet then filed in. Shortly after 12 o'clock Senator Frye, in a brief and touching address, announced the suspension of business. Chaplain Conden offered an invocation. Dr. Edward Everett Hale then delivered the funeral address, after which the Gridding Quartet sang the following another address by Senator Frye and a benediction by Dr. Hale, the Senate adjourned. The House did the same.

When the Senate met Thursday Mr. Hear secured an extension until the next session of the question of the ratification of the Panama canal treaty. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr. Spooner spoke on the isthmian canal question. He defended his position by saying that the measure considered that "snap judgment" had been taken. The motion was not considered. A resolution by Mr. Morgan calling upon the President to supply such information as he may have relative to the present state of organization of the government of Panama was adopted. Mr